STECHER SEEMS SOME WRESTLER; HUSSANE IS MERE PLAY FOR HIM

Jack Curley, Hussane's Manager, Says Turk's Opponent is a World Beater Who Can Throw Gotch or Anyone Else; Hussane Himself is Marveling How Anyone Threw Him Twice in Nine Minutes.

By DAMON

NORK Dec. 1.—Yousoul
HUSSANE, the Turk wrestler, and Jack Curley, his manager, have returned from Lincoln Neb., where Hussans was beaten on Thankagiving Day by Joe Stecher, the new Western mat marvel. Stecher won in two straight falls devoting about four minutes to the subject of the sultan the first time and slightly more than that for the second fall.

When interregated about the matter up in Curley's office, Hussane has head with his arms.

"Ch-o-o-o, I am so nervous" he said "Oh-o-o-yes, yes! Some

"Here!" said Curley, suddenly grab-HUSSANE, the Turk wrestler, and Jack Curley, his manager, have returned from Lincoln Neb., where Hussans was besten on Thanksgiving Day by Joe Stecher, the new Western mat marvel. Stecher won in two straight falls devoting about four minutes to the subject of the sultan the first time and slightly more than that for the second fall.

When interrogated about the matter up in Curley's office, Hussane walked the floor, flailing the air above his head with his arms.

"Gh-o-c-o, I am so nervous" he said. "Gh-o-c-yes, yes! Some dings it happens. I do not know. No! Yes! I am so nervous! Hussane, he is defeat! in five minyutes. What a business is this! It better was that I he dennk. I could not have done informer. Mine minyutes! Hussane! Oh-o-o! I am so nervous!"

"He hasn't quite recovered yet," said Curley. "Stecher got him with a self-sors hold for the first fall—that held with the two legs around the body which the Nebraskan has perfected to murderous efficiency. The second time Hussane got behind him, and was working on him, when suddenly one of Stecher's ham-like hands shot out, grasping Hussane around the wrist, and threw him around in the air. It was all over so quickly that I could scarnely realize what had happened. As for Hussane—well, you see him."

"I am so neivour," mild Hussane, walking the floor.

"Hussane is a good wrestler, and had you told me any man in the world could throw him twice in nine minutes I'd have langhed at you," continued Curley, "This Stecher is him going to bet all I can beg or borrow on Stecher."

Ste her is 13 years old, and was born and raised in the little town of Dodge. Nebraska, "resumed Curley," never heart of Dodge before in my life vntil I heard of Stecher, but I am 'eld that another of our American great wretters. Clarence Whistler, came from there. I always thought he originated in Baltimore, but I is seems not.

"Stecher never had a wrestling lesson in his life. All he known about the minutes of his held the humber!"

Oh no, he finds much time for fun.

Some people have an idea that working and saving is all drudgery. There isn't a particle of drudgery to it when you follow Alexander's system. He does not shirk, you see, but "GETS IT DONE." If he dilly-dallied, as many do, he'd never have any time for fun. The habit of putting off the little jobs spoils a lot of real fun for boys. And the putting off of saving spoils a lot of pleasure and happiness for grown-ups.

Records of Pitchers In National League For 1915

N EW YORK, Dec. 7.—Following are the official records of National league pitchers who participated in 32 or more sames during the large pitchers who participated in 32 or more games during the season of 1915. In computing this record all runs scored were charged against the pitcher except those resulting from fielding errors and passed balls. No runs were charged that scored after chances had been offered fielders to retire the side. The percentage is based on the least number of earned runs per nine-liming game. To arrive at this percentage the total earned runs are divided by the number of findings pitched; then multiplied by nine to find the pitcher's average effectiveness for a complete game.

 13 TEAMS BUNCH IN LEAD

New York, Dec. 7.—At midnight, when the riders had completed 24 hours on the track, all the 17 teams in the six day bicycle race were still in the running. Thirteen of them were bunched in the lead having covered 525 miles six laps.

Sullivan and Anderson were one lap behind the leaders with 525 miles, eight laps. Suter and Madonna had covered 525 miles six laps.

MS BUNCH IN LEAD miles, nine laps, exactly two miles behind the record, made by Fogler and Hill last year.

FRANK BELT, the veteran manager, has made a proposition to the Keokuk fans to finance their club in the Central association in return for a bonus of $3000. The club lost over $6000 last year and the proposition is sure to be accepted. The idea is a good one and might be worked here. Anyway, it's worth thinking over.

BUENOS AIRES plans to get into the fistic game in real earnest next spring and Jack Curley—not Tex Rickard, as might be imagined -is to be promoter in chief. The plans call for a heavyweight title bout between Jess Willard and the best man that can be secured to meet him; a middleweight title bout between Mike Gibbons and Les Darcy; a lightweight bout between Freddie Welsh and Charlie White, and a bantam bout with Johnny Ertle and Kid Williams. All that remains is to get the fighters to sign. That's enough.

THANK goodness, some of the eastern football dopesters are not trying to pick "all-American" elevens this year! They content themselves with "all-eastern" football teams, which shows that they have some respect for the west.

CHARLIE SOMERS is surely having his troubles. Cleveland's American league club was losing enough money and games without the troubles of the Toledo Mulbens and when Somers had to transfer the A. A. club to Cleveland he found that there was no bottom to the hale into which he dropped his money. And now it looks as though the Cleveland American league franchise will go under the hammer.

HERE'S hoping that Chris Fox manages to get up his high school soccer team for the City-Army league. The advent of the Tigers will add some spice to things and will stir up interest, which is sadly lacking right now, though soccer is a mighty fine sport.

If La Junta can show the necessary "long green" to back up that "pep" it will likely get a chance to show it can support a league team.

Rounds; Ends in Draw.

New Orleans La., Dec 7.—Fight funs are today discussing the 10 round hattle royal Monday night between "Eld" Williams, bantamweight champion, and Frankis Burns, which referee Ed Smith said ended in a draw. Some of the spectators gave Burns an adge, while others thought Williams should have had the decision by a shade.

Each fighter weighed IIs pounds ringaide. Soth put up a game battle. Burns forced the fighting in the first half of the bout, and planned hard swings and stiff jabs almost at will up to the ninth round, when he seemed to tire and allowed Williams to become the aggressor. Burns had the advantage in reach and in height, but in the fourteenth round, the champion started a flying jab for Burns head and landed frequently.

In the eighth, Williams roshed Burns to the ropes, but the challenger drove him back with left and right swings to the face and body and Williams dropped to his knees.

Later in the same round, Burns rushed the champion around the ring landing at will to the face and chest. From that round on to the finlah, with the exception of the 17th round, Williams appeared to have the better of the fighting. The champion seemed stronger and trester when the final generalship and boxed deverly. But Williams was strong on the infishting, landing frequent uppercuits and pounded Burns' ribs until his body was red. Williams was strong on the lifth 11th, 16th and 18th were considered even, and the champion was favorite for the rest. Williams was a seven to five favorite in the betting.
